- Invitation -

Communications Coordination Committee for the United Nations (CCCUN)
International Federation of Journalists (IFJ)
National Writers Union

Co-Sponsored by

Human Rights Congress for Bangladesh Minorities;
International Council of Women (ICW); Earth Society Foundation
Metro New York Labor Communications Council

Media's Role in Supporting Human Rights & Social Change

In Commemoration of World Press Freedom Day

Tuesday, 3 May 2016
2:00-4:00 PM
U.N. Church Center
Second Floor Conference Room
777 United Nations Plaza, New York, NY
44th Street and First Ave.
UN grounds pass not required.
RSVP by May 2nd: cccun@optonline.net required for building security list
Please arrive by 1:45 PM

MODERATOR

Dr. Elizabeth Carll

President, Communications Coordination Committee for the United Nations (CCCUN);
U.N. Representative, International Council of Women, est. 1888 with national councils in 64 countries

KEYNOTE

H.E. Ms. Bénédicte Frankinet

Ambassador & Permanent Representative
Permanent Mission of Belgium to the United Nations

PARTICIPANTS

Vanessa M. Gezari

Managing Editor of Columbia Journalism Review;
Adjunct Professor, Columbia University Journalism School; Veteran War Correspondent reporting from 4 continents for Washington Post, Chicago Tribune, Slate and others.

Madeleine Bair

Program Manager, WITNESS Media Lab, WITNESS human rights organization, trains citizen journalists to use video footage for advocacy.

Graciela Leal

Latin America Program Manager, PCI Media Impact - Projects in Colombia and Bolivia partnering with journalists and community organizations to address violence against women.

Lindsay Curcio

Immigration Attorney; Adjunct Professor New York Law School; works with the media to assist asylum seekers.

RESPONDENT

Alexandria Faiz

Trustee, National Writers Union

GROUP DISCUSSION - AUDIENCE Q & A